THE GOLDEN ECHO

by David Garnett

Book Society Recommendation

'The most absorbing and best written of all his books . . . How alive are the portraits of the writers he knew in his boyhood'

Raymond Mortimer

'Fascinating to read . . . the freshness and unexpectedness of the portrayal . . . The story is beautifully told'

Edwin Muir

Ill. Demy 8vo. 21s.

THE DWARF

by Pär Lagerkvist

Book Society Recommendation

'This book is intensely gripping in its simplicity and wisdom, and the masterly way in which the author allows us to sum up the characters for ourselves. . . . No wonder Pär Lagerkvist won the Nobel Prize in 1951'

John O'London's Weekly

Cr. 8vo. 8s. 6d.

PHOENIX FLED

by Attia Hosain

'Miss Hosain's short stories are brilliant little vignettes, delicate, precise, loving and exquisitely true, in spirit and in fact'

John Connell

Cr. 8vo. 10s. 6d.

THE LAST HUSBAND AND OTHER STORIES

by William Humphrey

'The Last Husband and Other Stories is a refreshingly original collection, the work of a writer who interprets characters and situations briefly and to the point'

Birmingham Post

Lge. Cr. 8vo. 12s. 6d.
